TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing this letter to express my full support for the candidacy of Roberto Cavallo as president of the EAAE.

Roberto is a highly esteemed and versatile colleague, widely recognized as a frontrunner in the field of education. His extensive experience spans all aspects of education, making him exceptionally well-rounded. Roberto possesses a remarkable ability to connect educational content with the interpersonal skills necessary for meaningful engagement with students, colleagues, and the broader community.

His dedication and reliability are consistent, demonstrating commitment to every task he undertakes. He has the ability to inspire and guide others, along with a visionary outlook.

I am confident that Roberto's proven leadership, innovative thinking, and unwavering dedication will be invaluable assets for the future of the EAAE. His contributions are sure to drive forward the mission and vision of the organization.

With compliments
